

Virginia Irwin

Teaching Professional

Virginia has had extensive experience both as an Instructor and a Professional Golfer for over a decade.

She developed her passion and skill for teaching under the watchful eye of Ian Triggs while working as Assistant Teaching Professional, Tri Golf Academy at Indooroopilly Golf Club.

Her desire to help people capitalise on their potential has seen her develop a holistic approach to golf instruction focusing on game play rather than just swinging. Virginia is heavily involved with all levels of golfer from beginner through to elite and representative players. Virginia will simplify golf for you with proven techniques that take into consideration your individual learning style. Her philosophy encompasses 'the integration of technical, physical, tactical and mental aspects to accelerate the learning process.'
