

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

Not all activities at Indooroopilly are serious. We enjoy our golf competition but we also know how to have fun. Club records show one of the early purchases was a piano and a dance floor was laid in the clubhouse in 1936.

Christmas Concerts

The ladies' concerts are legendary and a selection appears below:

1970s concert - The Mullet Gut Mermaids

1970s - Shirley Lynch and Barbara Morris in 'Young Lochinvar'

L-R: Ruth Pearson, Barbara Morris and Shirley Lynch in 'The Grannies Derby' in 1981

The Royal family attends the Christmas concert in 1988. L-R Judy Lawson, Madge Liley, Margaret Archer and Janet Jefferies

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

Presidents at Home

Black tie Presidents at Home functions were introduced in 1966. The first in the new clubhouse was hosted by President, Kent Ruffin, in 1987.

Mr and Mrs Kent Ruffin greet the guests

Guests enjoy a pre-dinner drink

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

Pymble Visits

One of our oldest reciprocal clubs, Pymble Golf Club in Sydney, has had bonds with Indooroopilly back as far as 1951. Since 1979 the two clubs have exchanged visits and many members have enjoyed the camaraderie of these annual get-togethers.

1987 Pymble visit to Indooroopilly

Trevor Davies welcomes Pymble visitors during their 1987 visit

Charity Day

Each year the ladies Social Committee organizes a major fund-raising effort for our chosen charities.

Marjorie Schumacher takes charge of the raffle spins at the 2001 Charity Day

*2004 Charity Day stall helpers
L-R: Pat Walsh, Jenny Vincent, Jane Bieger,
Jane Barry and Julie Lowes*

Indooroopilly Heritage

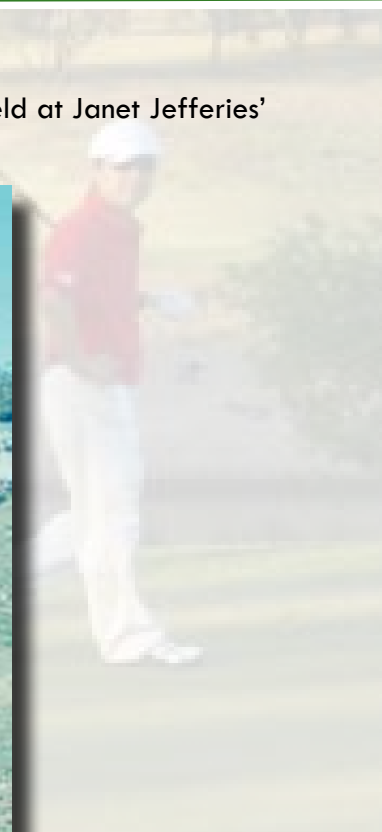

Social

Ladies Pennant Picnics

Ladies pennant picnics have been a source of much fun. The Highland Games were held at Janet Jefferies' home in 1990.

Captain Janet Jefferies carrying the Royal Thistle leads Vice-Captain Steph Moroney and Non-Playing Captain of the Grade 1 pennant team Val Eustace down to the presentation area.

L-R: Margaret Archer, Marjorie Schumacher, Pam Battersby, Steph Moroney, Janet Jefferies, Pam MacDonnell.

Pennant player, Pam MacDonnell, shows off her Scottish heritage.

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

Another memorable pennant picnic was the Australian Games in 1992.

The Games were opened by Mr & Mrs Crawl Cheating.

A very competitive milking competition resulted in a dead heat between No 1 pennant player Loraine Lambert and life member Marion Longland.

L-R: Lady Holt, Mr & Mrs Cheating (aka Lyndal Plant & June O'Connell)

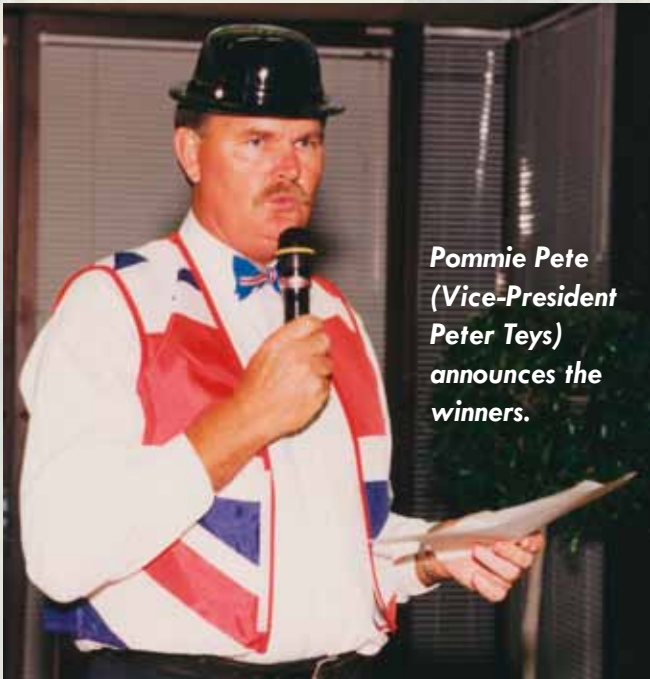

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

British Open Raffles

During the mid-nineties the Club organized an annual raffle of a trip for two to the British Open and this competition continued for a number of years. In 1998 the winner was announced at a British Pub Night.

*Pommie Pete
(Vice-President
Peter Teys)
announces the winners.*

And the winners are - Julia and Alister Rogers!

Melbourne Cup lunches

The ladies Social Committee were responsible for wonderful Melbourne Cup parties at the Club for many years.

*Social Committee –
2002 Melbourne Cup lunch.*

1998 Melbourne Cup lunch.

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

Morning Tea Hostesses

Our morning tea hostesses have dispensed tea with a warm welcome to visitors on ladies invitation and pennant days for many years.

Tea ladies in 2003 -

Elvis Holmes, Alma Allison and Audrey Mills.

Close of Season Fun Days

Ladies Fun Days have caused much hilarity.

2001 Fun Day -
"Australian Towns"
theme -
Weipa & Alice Springs (Barbara
Angus & Lois
Wagner).

2005 Fun Day "In the Pink" theme -
Pink Bins (L-R: Pat Fennell, Diana Roach, Helen Himstedt, Vivienne Trenfield).

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

2005 Fun Day
"In the Pink" theme
- Corps de Ballet
(Social Committee).

2007 "Irish" theme Fun Day -
Nuns (Natalie Austin, Margaret Hay, Noela Gunderson and Angela Ramsay), Leprechauns (Jane Sohn, Guest, Monica Kim and Teresa An).

Presidents Cup

The inaugural Presidents Cup was held in 2009. 256 players in 32 teams represented their country or State of origin in medley competition.

The "Holy See" team believes it has a divine right to win.

Indooroopilly Heritage

Social

Two of the "Steve Irwin" team line up a putt.

New Member Cocktail Parties

These quarterly functions provide an opportunity to welcome our new members into the Club.

New Junior members Ollie and Alex Bain, Sam Berge and James Young enjoy canapes on the Poinciana Bar terrace

New members meet and mingle with members, Board and management at the quarterly new member orientation and welcome drinks.

