

Pale Matrush (Lomandra glauca) A NSW native clumping groundcover with a glaucous appearance planted in the RHS garden at the driveway entrance.

Rampaging Roy (Anigozanthos xhybrid) Western Australian Kangaroo Paw cultivars have been developed to grow well in Eastern Australia. This examples grows on the LHS of Red 8 tee-block, with flower close-up below.

River Lily (Crinum pedunculatum) This clumping lily grows naturally along coastal waterways and is planted here on the path from the Red 9 green, with flower close-up below.

Selloum (Philodendron selloum) This clumping introduced species is planted on the western side of the clubhouse surrounds.

Slender Rat's Tail Grass (Sporobolus creber) This native grass grows naturally along the RHS of the drain on Blue 2 fairway.

Spider Lily (Hymnocallis pedalis) This South American Lily is planted on the South side of the Clubhouse surrounds.

Spider Plant (Chlorophytum comosum) An African groundcover, this variegated clumping plant is growing in the gardens around the Clubhouse.

Spiny Matrush (Lomandra longifolia) This close relative of the Creek Matrush is widely planted in garden areas, distinguished by its un-branched flower head.

Swamp Foxtail (Cenchrus purpurascens) This attractive clumping grass was widely planted around sand bunkers but this specimen is in a garden in front of the Golf 7 men's tee-block.

Swordsedge (Gahnia sieberiana) This clumping sedge has very sharp edge of leaves and is planted (pJW) in the landscape area on the RHS of Red 6 fairway with a close-up of fruits below.

Tall Liriope (Liriope cv. 'Evergreen Giant') This clumping cultivar was planted in the Clubhouse surrounds gardens.

Torch Guzmania (Guzmania hybrid cultivar) This striking hybrid cultivar Bromeliad is growing in the Western gardens of the clubhouse.

Treasure Flower (Gazania rigens cultivars) These attractive Southern African clumping groundcovers are planted in the entry garden to the clubhouse.

Tussock Grass (Poa labillardieri) This attractive SEQ native clumping grass was planted (pJW) behind the Blue 7 men's tee-block.

Variegated Liriope (Liriope cv 'muscaria') This clumping cultivar was planted (pJW) on the LHS of the Red 6 men's tee-block.

Wandering Vriesia (Vriesia vagans) This Brazilian clumping Bromeliad was planted in the clubhouse surrounds Western gardens.

Yellow Iris (Dietes bicolor) This attractive clumping South African Iris is widely planted in garden beds, with a flower close-up provided below.

