

BOARD POLICY

Proposing and Seconding applicants for membership (Approved April 2023)

Members of the Indooroopilly Golf Club who propose or second prospective members have a very important responsibility in regards to welcoming these new members to our Club.

Proposer/Seconder definition

To be a Proposer or Seconder you must:

- be a financial member of Indooroopilly Golf Club
- have been a member for at least twelve months
- be over 18 years of age
- know the prospective member personally and be able to vouch for their good character.

Proposer and Seconder responsibilities

To ensure prospective members are both welcomed and integrated into the Club, a Proposer or Seconder is required to:

- assist the prospective member to complete their membership form and/or direct them to the Membership Team to help with any enquiries
- familiarise the prospective member of the club's facilities, dress regulations, golf rules and etiquette, competitions and course care
- introduce the prospective member to other club members and Golf Shop staff
- invite the prospective member out for a round of golf as a guest while the membership process is underway
- following Board provisional approval, attend an Induction Session with the applicant to complete their approval process.

The Proposer may request to attend the new member interview as part of the membership process.

Proposer subscription credit

Members who propose elected new members that have submitted an application form prior to the 1st July 2023, at which point in time the proposer subscription credit will be grandfathered, are eligible to receive a credit towards their subscription fees for the following year. The proposer subscription credit is:

- $200 for each successful applicant over the age of 18 years elected into Full or Restricted membership, up to a total credit of $800 in each membership year.

The Proposer can elect to apply this credit to the new member's account. Seconders are not eligible to receive the proposer subscription credit.

The Proposer Subscription credit will be grandfathered and therefore not apply for any applications received after 1st July 2023.
