Rules for the Use of the Practice Facilities

These rules apply to members, members guests and visitors (players) at Indooroopilly Gold Club.

Players using the practice facilities at Indooroopilly Golf Club MUST abide by the rules set down as below.

- The practice facilities are defined as:
 - The driving range (including the green at the end of the driving range, also known as “Triggs’ green”).
 - The practice putting green.
 - The practice chipping green (behind the driving range and adjacent the Tennyson 9 green).
 - The own ball practice areas (which are located to the right of Park 1, behind the Park 9 and City 9 greens, to the right of Coot-tha 5 and to the left of City 4).
- Players MUST observe any signs regarding the use of the practice facilities.
- Players MUST NOT use any practice facilities which are closed.
- Club supplied practice balls Players MUST ONLY be used on the driving range and chipping green unless they are provided by a teaching professional for use in another practice area.
- Players MUST NOT remove club supplied practice balls and baskets from the area of the driving range and chipping green.
- On the driving range:
 - When the grass practice tees on the driving range are in use, players:
 - MUST hit from the marked tee positions;
 - Should use a linear divot pattern to extend turf life and assist quicker re-growth; and
 - Should fill their divots.
 - When the artificial grass tee mats on the driving range are in use, players MUST NOT hit from the grass practice tees.
 - Players MUST NOT walk or play in front of the tee positions in use.
 - Players who hit balls onto the adjoining holes from the driving range MUST call out “Fore” to warn players in the line of fire.
 - Players MUST not hit clubs from the driving range which would cause the ball to land beyond the end of the driving range.
 - Players MUST NOT practice around the green at the end of the driving range except when under the supervision of a teaching professional.
